

The Paducah Evening Sun.

VOL. XXIII NO. 54

PADUCAH, KY., TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 3, 1908

TEN CENTS PER WEEK

CITY EMPLOYEES TO SET EXAMPLE PAYING POLL TAX

Mayor Smith Says Those on City's Payroll Shall Perform Their Duty.

Much Depends Upon Saloon License in July.

HOPING FOR FUNDS TO COME

"It is not right that we should put men on the city's payroll and then practically say to them, 'you do not need to pay your taxes,' while we are making other people pay theirs."

Thus spoke Mayor Smith this morning, and his words will cost city employees in some cases five times $1.50, which is the amount of each one's poll taxes for five years.

City Solicitor Campbell is preparing to proceed in the collection of delinquent poll taxes and the start will be made with the city employees. They will be notified that an old resolution of the general council, providing for the retention of their poll tax from their salaries, will be enforced.

The administration intends to collect every cent due the city. There is much repair work to be done, and many improvements absolutely demanded, to prevent the city retrograding. The tax rate will be $1.85, and with the revenue now in sight, that will scarcely maintain the city's running expenses; but Mayor Smith is living in the hope that by July the $500 saloon license will be in force, and the city can collect about $35,000 from that source.

Repairs and improvements to River side hospital, endless street improvements, a levee near the Illinois Central incline, so that the health department can get the garbage into the river channel, a county and city infectious hospital and many other things are needed. Mayor Smith thinks the city will have no trouble in finding good use for the money.

Ollie James Back Again.

Washington, D. C., March 3.—Ollie James has resumed his duties on the floor of the house. "I died several times while the operation was being performed," he said. "I think no one ever suffered more pain." He will return to New York in a week for further treatment. He was unconscious when taken to the operating table.

DEMAND SUFFRAGE

Washington, March 3.—Suffragettes appeared before the judiciary committee of the house today and demanded an amendment to the constitution so as to give women the right of suffrage. The "Rev." Anna Shaw, president of the National Suffrage association, and other leaders of the women's organization, spoke to the committee and told them of the receipt of telegrams from women.

WAGON BACKED INTO FIRE ALARM BOX AND BROKE IT.

The story that fire alarm boxes were prized off the poles with crowbars at Tenth and Madison streets and Fifth and Harrison streets is without foundation. A farmer drove to Tenth and Madison streets and was backing his team to a tobacco warehouse door when the tongue of the wagon bounced up and struck the fire alarm box. The damage did not amount to much, and Chief Wood had it in working order in a short time. Nothing was done to the fire box at Fifth and Harrison streets, where another independent tobacco warehouse is located. The story led some people to think that enemies of the tobacco growers had prized the boxes off the post.

DAWSON SPRINGS POSTOFFICE SAFE
BLOWN BY ROBBERS

Dawson Springs, Ky., March 3.— (Special.)—Robbers scientifically blew both doors of the fire-proof vault in the postoffice some time last night and stole $904.37 worth of stamps and 60 cents in money. Nobody heard them, as the postoffice is opposite the railroad station and near a switch. No attempt was made to break into the steel chest in the wall of the vault, where the money is kept. There is no clew.

County and City May Establish Refuge Like Home of Friendless if Present Plans Are Carried Out.

Mayor James P. Smith and County Judge Lightfoot Propose Meeting of Fiscal Court and Council.

The suggestion of Mayor Smith that the city and county co-operate in providing a fund for a large place like the Home of the Friendless so that all the indigent children of the city and county may be accommodated, was favorably received by the fiscal court at its session today, and it was decided to have the court meet as a committee of the whole with the general council at a date to be decided upon in a few days.

In bringing the matter before the court Judge Lightfoot with whom the mayor was in consultation for an hour before the court met, paid a compliment to the work of the ladies—managers of the institution, which, he said, reflected more credit to the city of Paducah than any other institution, and the mayor, he said, should be commended in his efforts to secure a co-operation of the city and county authorities to aid them to extend the work, and should be commended in making a reality of the institution he has in mind he would succeed in bringing more good to the county and city than has any other living man.

That the entire court endorsed the statements of the presiding officer and was willing to extend assistance was evident by the many expressions of approval heard.

Contagious Hospital.

Judge Lightfoot also reported that the mayor asked the co-operation of the county and city in providing a hospital for the segregation of people afflicted with incurable and contagious diseases, and that question also will be discussed at the meeting of the court with the aldermen and councilmen. For many years there has been a conflict between the city and county authorities as to which should take care of the poor people of the city, that were sick. The hospital board, refusing to take patients that have incurable diseases or with prolonged troubles, claiming that they should be taken to the county sanitarium for treatment, and the county authorities have several times refused to take patients from the city that were afflicted with consumption. In many cases they have not been able to get proper treatment. According to the plans that are being formulated by the mayor, a place can be provided at a small cost to be paid for equally by the city and county, that will accommodate the patients now refused.

The mayor assured the county

NIGHT RIDERS IN CHRISTIAN AND CALLOWAY COUNTIES ARE ACTIVE

Threats of Retaliation Are Said to be Made in Western District.

Hopkinsville, Ky., March 3.—A few night riders visited Friday night the farm of Walter A. Layne, a prominent farmer, who resides five miles south of Hopkinsville, and left threats in the form of notes and switches.
The unknown men rode into the farm from the rear of the place and were mounted on mules and horses. It is known that as many as four were in the party. They stopped first at the house of the two tenants and then proceeded to Mr. Layne's residence.
At each place they laid down a bundle of switches and a note, warning Mr.
Layne and his croppers to sell their tobacco through the association, under a penalty of a whipping. All notes were signed "500," and there were matches at Mr. Layne's. Mr. Layne is not a member of the association, but announced some time ago his intention of joining as soon as the books are opened for new members.

In Calloway.

Murray, Ky., March 3.—The first of the real night riders have appeared in Calloway county. Saturday night they visited several different places in the county, one place being the home of Clint Stewart, an independent tobacco grower, east of town, formerly a resident of Murray. About sixty men called on him and in a forcible manner requested him not to deliver the remaining part of his crop or he would be dealt with like others have been—with whips and matches.
Several barns have been burned, but this is the first organized body that has come out openly and made de-

IN EFFigy.

Clinton, Ky., March 3.—(Special.)—Four figures danced in the air over the main street last night bearing great placards and the names of the Democratic legislative bolters, Charlton, Mc-Nitt, Tallard and Mueller, before they were joined by one, dressed in a calico wrapper and labeled, "Sissy Campbell." Senator Campbell's friends took the addition of the fifth figure good naturedly, declaring that it was no part of the original plan to express public opinion, and was slipped into the group by one of the Beckham men.

Judge that under his administration the hospital will not be run as a money making institution, but for the benefit of those, who need treatment.

Bryan Ill, Hurrying Home.

Memphis, Tenn., March 3.—Suffering with a severe cold and what he termed a "busting" headache, W. J.
Bryan announced here that he would make a bee line for his home in Lincoln, cancelling dates in St. Louis on Monday.

Miss Harriman Weds.

New York, March 3.—Miss Cornelia Harriman, daughter of E. H. Harriman, was married at noon today to Robert L. Gerry, son of Commodore
E. T. Gerry. She is 23 and he is 30.
The ceremony was in Grace church.

BUGGY RAN OVER HER

Maxon Mills, March 3.—(Special.) —Mrs. Sue Gardner, 65 years old, formerly of Paducah, was injured yesterday afternoon while dismounting from a buggy. As she stepped from the buggy the horse lunged and she was thrown to the ground with considerable force. The buggy wheel passed over her back twice. No bones were broken. Dr. F. V. Kimbrough attended her.

IS ORGANIZED HERE

Colored workmen met last night and organized a Taft club, with a large and enthusiastic membership. H.
B. Davis was elected president and Ed Brown secretary. This is the first of an effort on the part of colored voters to forestall a plan to misuse their race in the county convention.

mands. Some trouble is feared in the county.

Things seem to be changing. Some association people have received notices—or rather notices have been posted that if any more independent tobacco is burned, the same kind of fire will also burn association tobacco.
Calloway has been thinking that it would escape the trouble, but it may come.

MRS. LOURAINÉ DEAD

Mrs. Mary B. E. Greif Louraine, 61 years old, died this morning at 5 o'clock at her home on Maple street, Rowlandtown, of cerebro-spinal meningitis. She was sick only a few days.
Mrs. Louraine is survived by one sister, Mrs. Maggie Selbert, of Louisville, and three brothers, Mr. J. W.
Greif, of Cairo; Mr. A. A. Greif, of Leitchfield, and Mr. L. A. M. Greif, of Paducah. Mrs. Willie Wolf is a niece.
Mrs. Louraine was born in this city in an old house that stood on the levee from there the family moved to Fourth and Jefferson streets, where Mrs. Louraine lived until her marriage about five years ago. Mrs. Louraine worked with her father, William Greif, in the fire insurance business and after his death she carried on the insurance business in her own name, which was then Miss Mary B.
E. Greif, and had one of the largest insurance agencies in this part of the state. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at St. Francis de Sales at 10 o'clock, the Rev. Father H. W. Jensen officiating. The burial will be at Mt. Carmel cemetery.

Grain Market.

St. Louis, March 3.—Wheat $1.02;

U. S. WALSTON IS SUGGESTED FOR SCHOOL TRUSTEE

Board Will Meet Tonight and Fill Vacancy in Fourth Ward.

Superintendent Carnagey Will be Re-elected.

BOARD WOULD ISSUE BONDS

Former School Trustee U. S. Walston is suggested by citizens of the Fourth ward as a fitting successor to Dr. C. G. Warner, who resigned, and it is believed the school board could do no better than select him.
The matter will come up tonight at the regular March meeting; but it is not known what the board will do.

The finance committee will report the pay roll and bills for February.
There is enough money on hand to meet the payroll and most of the bills and they will be recommended paid immediately.

The matter of issuing bonds to pay the balance of $17,500 due on the new school houses also will be called up by the finance committee, as the members have legal authority for the belief that the board may issue bonds without an election.

Another old matter that may be revived is the collection from the city of the schools' pro rata of back taxes.
Superintendent Carnagey will be unanimously re-elected for another year, at least, and it is probable that his term will be made two years. It is believed a majority of the committee favor the two year term.

Some changes in rules may be adopted, one being considered with regard to the physical fitness of the teachers.
The purpose of the proposed rule is to prevent teachers, suffering with a contagious or infectious disease, endangering the scholars' health.

SUPT. HILLS EXTENDS COURTESY TO COURT

Through the courtesy of Superintendent W. J. Hills, of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad, the members of the fiscal court and Road Supervisor Bert Johnson have been tendered free transportation to Jackson, Tenn., Saturday to attend the National Good Roads convention, at which time demonstrations in road building will be given by a government expert. A number of the officials will take advantage of the courtesy.

BUILDING PLANS FOR NEW EDIFICE ON FOUNTAIN AVE.

Plans for the building of the new church on Monroe street and Fountain avenue were adopted last night by the officials and congregation of the Trimble Street Methodist church.
Every plan submitted was examined carefully, but an architect of Memphis submitted the successful plan.
It calls for a main auditorium that will seat 550 people, and a room for the Sunday school with a seating capacity of 350. These two auditoriums may be made into one, and over 800 people seated. A room in the rear of the church will be used to install the organ and furnish accommodations for the choir.

The building will have a large basement, which will be divided into several lecture rooms. The main entrance of the building will be on Fountain avenue, but a side entrance will be made on Monroe street. The building will be built along the latest lines, and the congregation was pleased with the plans for the church.
The outside dimensions will be 99 by 65.6 feet.

A building committee will be appointed this week to take charge of the work, and arrange for the rest of the work. The material has not been decided upon yet, and the matter was discussed only informally last night.
Many want a building of concrete blocks, but the material will be governed by the bids that will be given.
It is probable that a nice brick structure will be built.

Several names have been suggested by the members of the congregation, but none has been selected yet. As soon as the work has progressed further the question of naming the church will be taken up.

Hundreds of Arrests Are Made in Chicago Without Discovering Any Plot to Assassinate Chief Shippy.

NO SALES TODAY ON LOCAL MARKET BY ASSOCIATION

No sales of association tobacco have been made in Paducah, the salesrooms being quiet after the big rush of yesterday when the sale of 240 hogsheads to the French buyers, E.
J. O'Brien & company, was made.
Nearly all the brokers, who buy at this market were out of town today, many of them going to Mayfield, where good sales probably will be made. In addition to the purchase here O'Brien & company bought 40 hogsheads at Mayfield and 25 hogsheads at Murray yesterday, paying from 7 to 12 cents for it.

Mr. J. V. Slayden, general manager of the association storage warehouse at Fulton, was here today and was agreeably surprised to learn that 70 hogsheads of Fulton tobacco were included in the sale made here yesterday.

The tobacco is stored in Mr. Slayden's warehouse and he will arrange to forward the farmers their checks for their tobacco when he returns to Fulton tomorrow.

Mr. Slayden said that the farmers are not rushing their tobacco to the market this year, but are taking time to get in good order and condition, realizing that the weed will bring a better price and find a ready sale if properly handled.

At Fulton.

Fulton, Ky., March 3.—The tobacco market has been exceedingly active recently, and thousands of pounds of the weed were delivered to the various warehouses in the city during the past week. More than 400 hogsheads have been prized at the association warehouse. Some of it has been sold, but the purchasers are slow in ordering it moved. More than 2, 000,000 pounds have been delivered to the association here and they are badly in need of more storage room.

At the independent warehouses more than two and a half million pounds have been delivered, but they are pricing and shipping it out as quickly as possible.

The little ripple of excitement displayed here a few days ago when Mr.
Hamlett, one of the largest Regie buyers, had received an anonymous letter, has about passed away. The letter was not from the night riders as first reported, but from some one who held a personal grudge against Mr.
Hamlett.

It is firmly believed now that the night riders have never thought of coming to Fulton, but a special guard is being maintained at the warehouses just the same as a precaution.

SAMUEL T. HUBBARD GOES WITH SMITH & SCOTT CO.

Mr. Samuel T. Hubbard has been elected secretary and treasurer of the Smith & Scott Tobacco company to succeed Mr. Edward Scott, who has gone on the road for the company.
Mr. Hubbard is well known throughout this section as a tobacco broker and is one of the best informed men in the trade.

Electrocuted.

Trenton, N. J., March 3.—George Wilson, a negro, was electrocuted in the state prison today for the murder of Frederick Romer, whom he robbed in December.

Queen Receives Letters.

Lisbon, March 3.—Queen Amelia continues to receive letters, warning her that King Manuel's abdication and departure from Portugal will alone save him from assassination. The police are mystified by the letters.

WEATHER.

New York Police Commissioner Active Since Threats Have Been Made Against Various People.

Chicago, March 3.—Isador Maron, a young Russian Jew, alleged to be a fellow anarchist of Lazarus Averbuch, the would-be assassin of Chief Shippy, was captured today while visiting in the Averbuch flat. He attended meetings with Averbuch. Harry Shippy is resting easily and his chances for recovery are favorable.

Although police have arrested 300 suspects since the shooting Monday, no direct evidence has been found of a plot among the anarchists, of selecting Averbuch, alias Auerbach, to kill the chief. Police say all gatherings will be suppressed and censorship of literature of revolutionary societies be established.

In New York.

New York, March 3.—Police Commissioner Bingham announced that Archbishop Farley, head of the Catholic diocese of New York, received a letter containing threats against his life, but that the letter has been suppressed at the request of the police.
Bingham admitted that he increased the number of plain clothes men in the financial district lately, because many financiers had received inflammatory letters.

Frisco Sued.

St. Louis, March 3.—The Frisco railroad and the Chapman & Dewey Lumber company, of Kansas City, were indicted by the federal grand jury today for granting and accepting rebates. Thirteen counts were based on shipments from Arkansas during 1905.

CIGARETTE STARTED FIRE.

Total Loss at Tampa Now Figured to Be $800,000—Relief Work.

Tampa, Fla., March 3.—The total loss sustained by Sunday's fire is estimated to have been $800,000, the buildings burned being mostly cigar employed in them. One thousand personnel are homeless, and 4,000 dependent on the factories for employment are out of work.

Charitable organizations have started relief work and a fund of $5,000 has already been raised.

The blaze is said to have been started by a man falling asleep with a lighted cigarette in his mouth, from which the bed clothing was ignited.

RAN BY ALARM BOXES

In desperate search for a fire alarm box, Mr. Nelson Boaz, a machinist at the Illinois Central shops, ran by two of the boxes while excited yesterday. Mr. Boaz, of 1218 Tennessee street, purchased a new gasoline stove and was anxious to try it.
He read the directions over and over and late yesterday afternoon went into the kitchen to light it. He knew a valve had to be opened and this was done successfully. Instructions were to let the gasoline run for some time, and Mr. Boaz went into an adjoining room and built a fire in the grate. In time he returned and applied a flame to his new stove. Instantly the gasoline caught fire, and so much had escaped that the stove exploded and went up to the ceiling. Mr. Boaz rushed out of doors and ran six squares looking for a fire box to give the alarm. Neighbors saw the flame and telephoned the fire department, but the flames died down in a few minutes and no damage was done. In his flight for a fire alarm box Mr.
Boaz had passed two boxes.

Marshall Field Estate Turns Over Handsome Check.

Chicago, March 3.—A check for $1,000,000 in payment of back taxes on the estate of the late Marshall Field was delivered to John R. Thompson, treasurer of Cook county, today.
The payment is made in accordance with an agreement entered into by the trustees of the estate with county officials several weeks ago, by which suits aggregating $1,700,000 were compromised.

The suits were filed after the inventory of the estate in the probate court had revealed that a large amount of securities were included in the lists upon which no taxes had been paid for several years.

WIDOWS' PENSION BILL.

Senate Committee Favors Measure Passed by House.

Washington, March 3.—The widows' pension bill, which was passed by the house, was reported favorably to the senate today by Senator Mc-Cumber, chairman of the committee on pensions. It increases to $12 per month the pensions drawn by widows of soldiers who served in any Indian war, the war with Mexico or the Civil war.

The senate committee added a provision on removing certain marriage restrictions, which provision, it is estimated, would add about 20,000 to the list of pensioners at a cost of $2,850,000 a year. The estimated annual cost of the bill as reported is $14,678,112.

LEGISLATURE IS SCRAPPING OVER M'CHORD MEASURE

Swann, of Calloway, Says He is Original Night Rider—Lively Tilt.

School Book Bill is Passed by the Senate.

FUQUA DENIES HIS LETTERS

Frankfort, Ky., March 3.—(Special.)—In the house the McChord tobacco bill is up. Many speeches are being made. The warmest argument is between McChord and Feland, who opposed the bill, saying it would drive both buyers and growers from the state.

Swann, of Calloway, in upholding the bill, said he was the original night rider.

In the senate most of the time was employed in a discussion of the school book bill, to take the maximum price off school books. Senator Conn Linn sent to the desk a statement of former Superintendent Fuqua denying that a letter from him in connection with the bill was authentic and saying it had been forged.

The Watkins school bill, taking the maximum price off school books, was adopted with some slight amendments.
Linn's motion to investigate the forged letter of Superintendent Fuqua was defeated.

During the debate on the McChord bill in the house Representative Wallace, of Louisville, declared the night riders are agents of the Society of Equity.

ENTERTAIN AT JAIL

Calder Eaker today entertained the members of the fiscal court and the county officers with a dinner at the jail, about thirty being present. A number of after-dinner talks were made and a general good feeling prevailed.

Rome, March 3.—A smallpox pandemic prevails in Rome. The vaccine supply is exhausted and the epidemic is serious.

Hughes Snubs Assembly.

Albany, March 3.—Hughes practically told the assembly today it was none of its business who his informant was that he quoted as saying there is a $200,000 fund to influence the legislation in the so-called anti-gambling bills, which are the governor's pet measures. They are intended to do away with horse race betting.

JEFF DAVIS' RECORD ATTACKED

Arkansas Prosecutor Makes Grave Charges Against the Senator.

Little Rock, Ark., March 3.—The political sensation of years in Arkansas was occasioned by a speech delivered by Prosecuting Attorney Lewis Rhoton, in which he unmercifully attacked the personal and official record of Senator Jeff Davis. He accused him, and backed his statements with letters and papers, of accepting railroad passes contrary to the state law when he was governor of the state, allowing the acceptance in his office of money from penitentiary convicts whom he pardoned, and of making a personal plea to him, Rhoton, not to prosecute certain alleged hoodlums accused of bringing members of the legislature and whom the senator had publicly proclaimed he would have put behind the bars. "Davis is the most consummate liar who ever disgraced the United States senate," he added.

Rhoton's speech from start to finish was a studied assault on the senator, who is now stumping the state for his gubernatorial candidacy. W. F. Kirby, Rhoton, while in Washington a few days ago, issued his challenge to Davis to meet him in joint debate over the issues that have arisen between them, which resulted in Davis at first denouncing as lies the charges made by Rhoton.

Davis refused to meet the prosecuting attorney. It is believed now that his speech will force Davis to openly meet his accuser.

RHEUMATISM

BLOOD FILLED WITH URIC ACID

Rheumatism comes from an excess of uric acid in the blood. This acid circulating through the system acts as an irritant to the different muscles, nerves, bones and tissues of the body, and produces the inflammation and swelling of the joints and the sharp, cutting pains characteristic of the disease. When the blood is overburdened with uric acid it continually grows weaker and more acid, and poorer in nourishing qualities. Then Rheumatism becomes chronic, and not only a painful, but a formidable and dangerous disease. Sometimes the heart is attacked, the general health is affected, and the oils and fluids which lubricate the muscles and joints are destroyed by the acid matter which the blood is constantly depositing in them; the muscles shrink and lose their elasticity, the coating of the joints becomes hard and thick, and often the sufferer is left a hopeless cripple. S. S. S. attacks the disease at its head, goes down into the circulation, and by neutralizing and removing the uric acid from the circulation and building up the thin, acid blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. S. S. S. changes the sour, acid-burdened blood to a rich, healthy stream which quiets the excited nerves, eases the throbbing, painful muscles and joints, and filters out of the system the irritating matter which is causing the pain and inflammation. Begin the use of S. S. S. now and get the cause out of your blood so that the cold and dampness of Winter will not keep you in constant pain and misery. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free.

LONGEST TIME IN THE SENATE

Senator Allison Has Been There 35 Years.

Expected to Break Record of Morrill, Who Died Before Term Expired, Serving 44 Continuous Years.

IN CONGRESS NOW 43 YEARS

Born at Perry, Oklahoma, March 2, 1829, of Irish ancestry. Educated in public schools, Wooster Academy and Allegheny college.

Studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1851.

Removed to Iowa in 1857 and made Dubuque his home.

Was a delegate to the convention which nominated Lincoln in 1860.

Served on the staff of Governor Kirkwood, of Iowa, during the civil war.

Elected a member of the thirty-eighth congress in 1862.

Elected to the United States senate in 1872 to succeed Senator James Harlan.

Re-elected to the senate in 1878, 1884, 1890, 1896 and 1902.

Present term in the senate will expire March 3, 1909.

Washington, March 3.—Senator Allison is 79 years old and received the congratulations of his colleagues. Today he completed his thirty-fifth year in the senate, which breaks all records. He has been in congress forty-three years.

Senator Allison is closely pressed for the honor of second place by Senator Cullom, of Illinois, who will be 79 years old next November. Senator Cullom still has five years of his present term to serve, which will make him 84 years old on his retirement in 1913. Senator Teller, of Colorado, ranks in age, being 78 years; Senator Proctor, of Vermont, ranks fifth in age, 77; Senator Platt, of New York, sixth, 75 years, and Senator Depew, of New York, 74 years.

If Senator Allison outlives his present term, which will end just one year from now, he will have served 44 years in congress, eight years in the house and thirty-six in the senate. This will rival the historic record of Senator Morrill, of Vermont, but the latter's forty-four years were continuous, which Senator Allison can hardly hope to equal, for an interval of two years occurred between Allison's eight years of house and then went directly to the senate, where he had served thirty-two years up to the time of his death in 1898. Senator Morrill was 88 years old when he died and had lived out his full term in the senate he would have been 93 years old at its expiration in 1903.

A year ago it seemed a safe bet that Senator Allison would be re-elected to the senate when his present term expires. Now, in view of the aspirations of Governor Cuyamaca and the factional strife among Iowa Republicans, Allison's re-election does not appear to be such a certainty.

BLUE WOMEN

Women should understand that melancholia, commonly called "the blues," is in nine times out of ten a sure symptom of some serious female organic derangement and should have immediate attention.

Women whose spirits are depressed, and who are ailing and miserable, should rely upon

as is evidenced by following letters.

Mrs. F. Ellsworth, of Mayville, N. Y., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "For three years I was in an awful despondent and nervous condition caused by female troubles. I was not contented anywhere, and was in such constant fear that something terrible was going to happen that it seemed as though I should lose my mind. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored my health, and I cannot say enough for it."

Mrs. Mary J. Williams, of Bridgeport, Ill., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I have been suffering from a female trouble, backache and headaches, and was so blue that I was simply in despair. I felt it my duty as well as my pleasure to tell you that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me. The change in my appearance is wonderful, and I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache. Why don't you try it?

THEATRICAL NOTES

"The Man of the Hour" Tonight. George Broadhurst's play, "The Man of the Hour," an American play which has won an extraordinary degree of success will be seen for the first time at The Kentucky tonight.

The work is a comedy drama and treats with one of the most important municipal problems of the day as its basic motives, while involved in it is a most engaging love story. Broadhurst heretofore confined himself mostly to the writing of farces, such as "What Happened to Jones," "Why Smith Left Home," etc. His new-known adventure in the field of more serious drama up to the time of the production of "The Man of the Hour," in which Wm. E. Crane appeared a few seasons ago; but his latest play has made all his former efforts seem unimportant by comparison, for it is not only a distinct triumph for the American playwright, but it has also won a success hitherto quite unparalleled on the American stage.

The company includes Orrin Johnson, Robert A. Fischer, Harold Russell, George C. Staley, Thomas Neighan, William Deming, Samuel C. Hunt, Bennett Southard, Samuel Forrest, Frank Russell, Basil West, Edward Culver and the Misses Frances Ring, Louise Everts and Kate Lester. The names of these players are familiar as they have appeared in the most successful productions of recent years and have done work which will be pleasantly recalled. Mr. Johnson has been popular since his successes as "Ben Hur," in Gen. Lew Wallace's biblical play of that title; "Men and Women," "The Lost Paradise," "The Heart of Maryland," etc. He was leading man at various times in the companies of Richard Mansfield, Maude Adams, Annie Russell, John Drew and other famous stars. Miss Frances Ring played for the past two seasons "The Widow," in George Ade's successful comedy, "The College Widow." Harold Russell is unquestionably one of the best character actors in the country. Robert A. Fischer has been an important factor in W. A. Brady's companies for many seasons and in more recent years has played the hard-hearted old Squire in "Way Down East." Sale of seats opened Monday at 9 a. m.

"Golden Voiced" Al Wilson. For several years Al H. (Metz) Wilson has been a popular favorite in the south, and from all accounts he is this season exceeding all his previous records in the matter of receipts. Letters received in New York almost daily tell of the very large audiences that he is drawing in Texas, where he is now filling his annual engagement in a new version of "Metz in the Alps." Next fall Mr. Wilson will be seen at one of the New York theaters in a new romantic drama which is to be put on for a run.

If you would be friendless, be frank.

EDWARD MITCHELL ELECTED ORATOR

Won After Close Contest for High School Honor.

Will Participate Against Hopkinsville and Madisonville on the 15th Day of March.

KENTUCKY WAS HIS SUBJECT.

Edward Mitchell will represent the High school at the oratorical contest to be held in Hopkinsville March 13 between the High schools of Hopkinsville, Madisonville and Paducah. Mr. Mitchell was selected last night by the judges, after the three candidates had delivered their orations. The judges had some difficulty in reaching a decision. Mr. Mitchell's subject was "Kentucky," and the way he told the history of the state made everyone feel glad he was in Kentucky.

His delivery was good, and the expression he put into his oration was a factor in gaining the decision for him. The oration was a brief narrative of Kentucky from the time Daniel Boone crossed the Cumberland mountains, and the deeds of her great men were not overlooked by the young orator. Mr. Mitchell is a Senior B. and will graduate next February.

Mr. Will Rock was a close competitor for the honor, and his oration on "Education in Kentucky," was full of facts that do not please the average Kentuckian, but nevertheless were true. His subject was handled in splendid style, and he evinced every hope, that Kentucky is able to come forward in educational lines.

Mr. Frank Luftenberg had "The Working Man" as his subject, and his manner of treatment showed his sympathy. It was a good subject, and the young orator was clear and bold in his remarks on the condition of the working man.

The judges of the evening were: The Rev. M. E. Dodd, John G. Miller and Frank Cheek. A musical program was given during the evening, that added to the pleasure.

Violin solo—"Hungarian Fantasia"—George Rawlins, accompanied by Miss May Bonds.

Piano duet—Misses Julia Dabney and Annie Dreyfuss.

Solo—"Could I"—Frank Cheek.

Cornet solo—Robert Bandurant, accompanied by Miss Mary Bondurant.

Piano solo—Miss Adah L. Brazelton.

Family Doctor Prescribed

At 80 years of age Mr. John Van Luvanee, Moline, Ill., was restored to health and vigor by taking Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as prescribed by his doctor.

Mr. Van Luvanee says he feels as young as he did 40 years ago, and is so delighted with the benefits received from the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, that he recommends it to old and young.

MR. JOHN VAN LUVANEE.

"I am over 80 years of age and I have had to work hard ever since I was old enough to do anything. I was generally rugged and healthy up to about three years ago, then I began to feel that I was getting old. I could not go up or down stairs without having to hold on to something. About a year ago I was out riding on an open wagon, the weather was chilly, I caught a bad cold and fever followed. I had to send for a doctor. I got over the fever, but I was still sick. I had no appetite. I was weak and had no flesh on my bones. The doctor told me to get Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, take it as directed, and I did so. I was soon better, my appetite returned and I felt as well as I did 40 years ago. I must say that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has been a great benefit to me, and has prolonged my life. I feel as well and can get around, I think, as smartly as the majority of men can at 45 years of age. I am very sure that it all came by using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and I advise every young, both old and young, especially the old, who have not very good health to take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as directed, and be temperate in all things. What I have said of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is my personal experience; it is by using it that I know it is a good medicine and I cannot help speaking of the good it has done me."—JOHN VAN LUVANEE, Moline, Ill., Nov. 5, 1907.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions. It tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as a family medicine.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only—never in bulk. Look for the trademark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken and that our guarantee is on every bottle. Price $1.00. Write Dr. R. Curran, Consulting Physician, for a free illustrated medical booklet and free advice. Duffy's Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

Wrecked. A large and robust Irishwoman appeared in a New York court recently to prosecute a case in which her husband was charged with having "water her." The defendant, a small, stoop-shouldered man, had the appearance of having been run through a threshing machine, and seemed scarcely able to stand. The judges surveyed the two with an amused light in their eyes. "You say this man beat you?" he asked the woman. "He did not," the prosecuting witness said, with emphasis, folding her powerful arms. "He knocked me down." "You mean to tell me you were knocked down by that physical wreck?" the judge queried. "It's only since he struck me that he's been a physical wreck. Your Honor," she explained—Harper's Weekly.

Farmer—"Somethin' the matter with the machine?" Voice (from under the auto)—"No, I just crawled under here to get out of the sun."—Smart Set.

TRY A SUN WANT AD

Very few people appreciate the great value of the small want ads in the newspapers : : :

Some of the Things The Sun's Have Done

Very few of the people, when reading the want ads, which probably 85 per cent of the readers do, ever realize just what splendid opportunities a three or four line notice will do.

A few days ago a reader of The Sun, who had just installed himself in a flat, purchased new furniture for the entire establishment, had to leave the city, due to a change in his business. "What shall I do with this outfit," he thought. Then he remembered the Sun want ads, put four lines in for a few days and sold all the furniture, at splendid prices, in a few days.

This is but one of the many incidents of a similar nature. You may not have an outfit of furniture to sell, but, you may have something around the house some one may want—an old carpet, or range, some musical instrument, or bit of furniture. A want ad. is a fascinating thing, for nearly every one reads them.

Try a want ad. for yourself, and test its merits. The cost is one cent a word for one insertion or three cents a word for a week, cash with order.

THE SUN.....PHONES 358

FOR THOUGHTFUL PEOPLE.

Not only has there been no specific for chronic kidney disease, but physicians and pharmacists have had no treatment for inflammation of the kidneys.

In evidence of this let us quote from one of the latest authorities, James Tyson, M. D., professor of medicine in the University of Pennsylvania. In his latest work (1904, page 156) he plainly says, as to curative measures to restore the kidney to its normal condition, "I BELIEVE THERE ARE NONE."

He further says the change from the first stage (the curative period) to the second or chronic stage (considered incurable) is probably established in all cases by the sixth month. Fulton's Renal Compound is the first and only thing ever known that controls inflammation of the kidneys and arrests further destruction; and it has this effect in both stages of the disease.

How can thoughtful people afford to think of anything else at any stage of kidney trouble?

Due to a deplorable lack of knowledge as to the seriousness of kidney disease and a common disposition to treat it lightly kidney deaths have increased until they now reach 63,000 annually—over a hundred and seventy per day.

SHURTELL WILL NOT BE CANDIDATE FOR SENATE.

Springfield, Ill., March 3.—The withdrawal of Edward D. Shurtell from the gubernatorial campaign has revived the story that the speaker of the Illinois house is to be a candidate for United States senator to succeed Senator Hopkins. While it is never safe to predict what will happen in Illinois politics three or four months in advance, and while Mr. Shurtell's mind, like the minds of others, may be subject to change, it may be stated on excellent authority that at the present time he has no intention of being a senatorial candidate.

Strange Freak of Mind.
Chattanooga, Tenn., March 3.—A remarkable story has just come to light here of an opinion of the supreme court of Tennessee affirming the death sentence of Andrew Williams, colored, in 1870. The opinion was written by the chief justice of the supreme court when he was in a sub-conscious condition, a trance, or in the midst of a somnambulistic state, and the remarkable thing was that his opinion was thoroughly sound both as to the law and the facts, and is one of the reported opinions, being printed and an authority to this day on the technical law points involved. Justice Nicholson was the man who wrote the opinion, and Peter Turner, afterward governor of Tennessee, saw him arise from his bed, write the lengthy document and again retire. Next day Justice Nicholson had no recollection of the incident. The elaborate opinion covered all the facts, cited numerous court decisions, and ended with an affirmation of the court below. Letters from the late Governor Turner in the possession of one of Chattanooga's most prominent attorneys, corroborate the foregoing story.

ROOSEVELT FEARS HE MAY BE CHOICE

Sincerely for Taft and Believes Taft Will Win.

Possibilities That Enemies of Administration Will Force President Into Nomination

WALTER WELLMAN'S OPINION.

(Walter Wellman in Chicago Record-Herald.)

Where does President Roosevelt really stand as to the third term talk? That which was expected has come to pass—there is a distinct revival of speculation as to the possibility of making Mr. Roosevelt the candidate again. Editorials are printed, interviews given, petitions circulated, with that end in view. William R. Hearst and other well-informed public men continue to assert their belief that Mr. Roosevelt will be forced to run. Southern Republicans declare that so great is the hold the president has upon the people of their section he could carry several southern states against Bryan. Nebraska Republicans wanted to take the lead in forcing the president's hand. Other Republicans talk of the president as the one candidate who would be absolutely sure to sweep the country against Mr. Bryan or anyone else the opposition party could name.

What are the views of Mr. Roosevelt himself as to all this? The president believes Judge Taft will be nominated by the Republican national convention. He believes the nomination will be made on the first ballot. He believes Taft is not only satisfactory to the great majority of the Republican party, but that he is distinctly and rapidly growing as a strong public leader.

President Roosevelt believes there is now much less danger of his own nomination than there was three months ago. He believes there is less danger than there was for the simple reason that Taft has grown so rapidly and is so admirably suited to the peculiar situation which now exists in the Republican party.

He believes, further, that while Taft has grown on his own merits, and on general recognition of those merits, that the influence of the administration of Mr. Roosevelt himself, has been a tower of strength to the Taft candidacy. The president feels that he has done a great deal toward making Judge Taft his successor. What he has done he has done for a number of reasons: Because he loved Taft, because he trusts him to carry on the Roosevelt work if elected, and because he has consciously wished to leave no doubt in anyone's mind as to his own sincerity.

What He Fears.
Notwithstanding his confidence in the success of Taft, notwithstanding his belief that Taft will win on the first ballot, Mr. Roosevelt still realizes there remains a vague possibility of his own nomination. He thinks that the danger is growing less every day and hopes it may entirely disappear by the time the convention meets. At the same time as a frank and thoughtful man, accustomed to looking facts squarely in the face, Mr. Roosevelt is conscious that accident or plot or upheaval may push him into a most embarrassing position. For example, if an unexpectedly large measure of success should attend the efforts of the conspirators who are trying to involve the south in hopeless contests, if in this or other ways a combination could be formed which should work to the up the convention for a considerable number of ballots, Mr. Roosevelt knows, as every man knows who knows anything at all of the game of politics, that there will be in such event the grave danger of his own nomination.

Probable, almost certain, as is the nomination of Taft (barring accident) improbable as is the other, there still exists the shadow, the possibility—and it is a possibility which a prudent man would consider far ahead. Mr. Roosevelt has considered it.

And in his eyes the whole problem revolves around this one question: If such an unexpected upheaval were to come and the president were forced to accept a nomination, what would the people of the United States think of his honor and sincerity?

He believes there are many good men and women now his warm friends and well wishers who would regret that he had been forced into such a predicament, who would not charge him with conscious insincerity, yet would be sorry that he had been compelled as a matter of duty to seem to break his word. As a sensitively honorable man, Mr. Roosevelt hopes with these friends of his that no such predicament may fall to his lot. But suppose it does, nevertheless, what then?

Suppose the convention falls into confusion, and out of the storm clouds comes the bolt which puts the president's name upon the standard. Suppose this be accompanied by a state of affairs which indicate that refusal to run would plunge the party into disaster. What would be Mr. Roosevelt's duty in such an event? Must he obey the command of the people, even at the risk of having unjust accusations thrown at his head, of possibly losing just a little of the bloom of the rose of his character as understood by his millions of admirers? Or would he be justified in declining the nomination, no matter what disaster might in consequence befall his party, in order to protect himself from criticism?

A Possibility.
The president's intimate friends believe—and in this belief Mr. Roosevelt no doubt joins—that if ever a public man has demonstrated his sincerity and straightforwardness, Mr. Roosevelt has done so in all his attitude toward a second nomination. If President Roosevelt had been playing a shrewd, business, shifty game "of hide-and-seek, as a justice of the supreme court put it, what would have been his policy? He would have kept hands off the presidential contest. He would have had no favorite. Falling back upon the principle that it is improper for a president to attempt to influence the choice of his successor, he would have left the field absolutely open—and let the best man win.

The president has been savagely criticized for not "doing this." The friends of other candidates and some of the other candidates themselves feel hurt and sore because the president has done so much for Taft.

But if the president had kept hands off, if he had permitted the situation to drift without any inspiration or guiding or favoritism from him, it is morally certain that this would have happened: Taft would have been the leading candidate with Hughes probably second and the others showing a great deal of strength, but no one able to command the field, no one within reach of the prize; public opinion very much divided; much plotting for combinations among the political leaders; "the interests" in clover because they reveal in such confusion, and in the end—almost surely—an escape from the dilemma in the easiest, safest and most popular way by the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt.

The president's advocacy of the nomination of another is the best answer to any charge that may be brought against him.

And For Himself Too.

The Splendid New Serial Story

Satan Sanderson

Satan Sanderson is the true embodiment of the requisites that make a really great story. It gives the reader a look into a little world of action where all of the emotions that make or mar life—and lives—are set in swift, exciting play—one against the other. Incident follows incident with quick succession, and a vivid panorama of intrigue, mystery, love and strange adventures kindles the interest to the fusing point.

Written in a charming style, brilliant in coloring, picturesque in background, faithful in characterization and intensely dramatic, with stirring climax, Satan Sanderson is by all odds the best story of the year.

Personally appeared before me, this March 2, 1908, R. D. MacMillen, business manager of The Sun, who affirms that the above statement of the circulation of The Sun for the month of February, 1908, is true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

My commission expires January 10th, 1912.

Daily Thought.

We are seldom sorry for the stinging words we have left unsaid.

March can't fool us with this soft introduction.

That hostile fleet seen off Honolulu was only a mirage. Now we are sure it was a Japanese war expedition.

If those anarchists in Chicago were more brutal and less discriminating in their outrages, they would be as bad as the night riders.

There is nothing like knowing who you've got to beat.

If the reactionaries, who are pooling their influences to defeat the administration in the national Republican convention had only the political acumen of the federal forces to reckon with, they might stand an even chance; but they have not estimated the force of public sentiment.
If they by chicanery defeat William H. Taft and create a deadlock we doubt whether Roosevelt himself could check the determination of the people to nominate him.

DUTY OF THE HOUR.

Next Monday at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon Republicans of McCracken county will meet in mass convention in this city to select delegates to the First district congressional convention two days later, when two delegates will be elected to the national convention and instructed to vote for some one to lead the Republican national ticket. This is just as important as the election itself. The duty devolves upon the Republican suf-fragists to choose the president of the United States for the next four years.
It is especially momentous this time; because, while the present administration is sure to be indorsed, there is a movement on foot to succeed President Roosevelt with a man entirely out of sympathy with his policies.
The whole people have given their sanction to those policies, and President Roosevelt, as one of the people, realizing the hidden motive of his enemies, has designated Secretary of War Taft as the one best fitted by experience and qualities of mind and heart to carry on the work of progress and reform. Friends of the administration: Republicans, who hope to see their party continue in the lead of American development, must do their duty and attend this county convention. There is no question as to the sentiment, but Taft's enemies are promising everything, and using money sent in from other states where money will accomplish most, while declaring themselves for Taft, in the hope that the real Taft followers will remain away and that they can steal the convention with their hired heels.
If everybody attends the convention, there is no doubt of the result in the First congressional district.

BECKHAM AND ANTI-BECKHAM.

"Hope springs eternal," well for Kentucky Democracy; for already the organs are preaching reorganization on a "sounder basis." Some of them predicate their hope on the fact that Beckham is beaten. Others just as confidently predicate theirs on the fact that Beckham's enemies are beaten. Both of them are right as to their predicates, and both of them will proceed to build.

That suggests a quotation about a "house divided against itself." Beckham went down in defeat, but he went down carrying the flag of Democracy at his masthead, and whatever other craft may be launched on the stormy sea of Kentucky politics, unless radical changes are made, Beckham will walk the quarter deck;
or else we are mightily mistaken.
It is difficult to say which would do the most to maintain J. C. W.
Beckham's hold on the party organization, his election to the senate, or his martyrdom. Men, who denounced him bitterly when the party was defeated last fall, are just as bitter against those who encompass his defeat for the senatorship. If they didn't like Beckham's crew, they don't seem to like the other crew any better.

Indeed, those who mutinied during the battle bungled fearfully. They have made former Governor Beckham, the victim of violated party pledges.
If the party owed him a grudge for selfish self-preference it owes him an apology now. He also has put himself safely in sympathy with the strong temperance sentiment of the country folk, and Kentucky is chiefly agricultural. His enemies in his own party have espoused the other end of the argument, a dangerous issue with which to go before the whole state.

Moreover, the defeat for the senatorship did not loosen the former governor's hold on the committees. He never lost a single political ally during the fight. He held the majority of the legislators with him to the end.
If he has no patronage to dispense; neither have his enemies, nor will they for four years. Honors are even on that score, with Beckham in possession of the committees.

We observe nothing but factional discord ahead of Kentucky Democracy for the next four years.

We hope they will give Beach Hargals a fair trial at Jackson, poor crazed creature.

The commonwealth's attorney of the Christian county circuit resents the governor's inference that the local department of justice is doing nothing. Of course, Mr. Smith knows how he can refute it.

LIVING.

"The good die young."
Strange that these words should be suggested by the death of a woman well past her three score years. She was a woman of whom, one cannot think without remembering her goodness—not just being good, but doing good. Her kindness never imposed an obligation; her gifts never advertised the piety of the giver. Rather her manner indicated appreciation of an opportunity to give herself a pleasure.

No carefully measured smile accompanied her benefactions. She laughed—a ringing, girlish laugh, that will haunt the ear as long as memory lasts. She must have been a sad tease; for the harmless pranks of her girlhood days lost none of their merriment, when mature responsibilities changed the direction of her activities. She loved to plan a surprise, laugh at the pleased astonishment of her victim and escape unthanked.

She had tasted of great sorrow; but to her it was as the fruit of the tree of knowledge of all human suffering, and intuitively she drank its nectar of sweet sympathy, and as naturally rejected the bitter rind.

ZIMMERMAN ON TAFT.

"William H. Taft is the only Republican who can be elected next fall," said Eugene Zimmerman, the Cincinnati railroad man, in an interview a day or two ago. "I have lately traveled about the country considerably, and have kept account of what I have heard very carefully. In Arkansas the sentiment is all for Taft. In Michigan it is the same. Hughes, I find, is practically unknown outside of New York, although they cannot realize it there. I think Indiana will give Fairbanks a complimentary vote, and that will be the end of C. W.
Illinois will do the same for Cannon, and that will finish 'Uncle Joe.' Then both states will swing solid for Taft, and as soon as Taft is nominated next June, the financial situation will settle down instantly, and the country will go ahead."

SLIGHTLY HUMOROUS.

A rural melodrama should at least have a grass plot.

Yet the bunko man's little game is only skin deep.

A pound box of candy will win a girl quicker than a 300-line poem.

A man's confidence in goodness is usually dependent on his own reserves of it.

Banks—That scar a birthmark?
Tanks—Yep. Pullman upper—Judge.

"Speaking of matrimony," said the portly passenger, "this car couldn't hold all the women I have married."
"What!" exclaimed the hardware drummer. "Do you mean to say that you are a bigamist?"
"Certainly not," replied the P. P.;
"I'm a minister."—Chicago News.

Struve had retreated until his back was to the counter, offering no word, making no move, but the darting brightness of his eyes showed that he was alert and planning. But when the door behind Helen, urged by the wind through the broken casement, banged to the man made his first lightning-like sign. He dashed the lamp to the floor, where it burst like an eggshell, and darkness leaped into the room as an animal pounces. Had she been calmer or had time for an instant's thought Helen would have hastened back to the light, but she was midway to her liberty and actuated by the sole desire to break out into the open air, so she plunged forward. Without warning she was hurled from her feet by a body which came out of the darkness upon her. She fired the little gun, but Struve's arms closed about her, the weapon was wrenched from her hand, and she found herself fighting against him, breast to breast, with the fury of desperation. His wine-burdened breath beat into her face, and she felt herself bound to him as though by hoops, while the touch of his cheek against hers turned her into a terrified, insensate animal which fought with every ounce of its strength and every nerve of its body. She screamed once, but it was not like the cry of a woman. Then the struggle went on in silence and utter blackness. Struve holding her like a gorilla till she grew faint and her head began to whirl, while dancing lights drove past her eyes, and there was the roar of a cataract in her ears.
She was a strong girl, and her ripe young body, untried until this moment, answered in every fiber, so that she wrestled with almost a man's strength and he had hard shift to hold her. But so violent an encounter could not last, Helen felt herself drifting free from the earth and losing grip of all things tangible, when at last they tripped and fell against the inner door. This gave way, and at the same moment the man's strength departed as though it were a thing of darkness and dared not face the light that streamed over them. She tore herself from his clutch and staggered into the supper room, her loosened hair falling in a gleaming torrent about her shoulders, while he arose from his knees and came toward her again, gasping:

"I'll show you who's master here!"
Then he ceased abruptly, cowering,
and threw up an arm before his face

"I'll show you who's master here!"
Then he ceased abruptly, cowering,
and threw up an arm before his face

"I'll show you who's master here!"

ing this, the others lifted him with difficulty to the couch.

"Something cracked in here—ribs, I guess," the Kid remarked, gasping and feeling his own side. He was weak and pale, and the girl led him into the bunkroom where he could lie down.
Only his wonderful determination had sustained him thus far, and now the knowledge of his helplessness served to prevent Helen's collapse.

The Kid would not hear of her going for help till the storm abated or daylight came, insisting that the trails were too treacherous and that no time could be saved by doing so. Thus they waited for the dawn. At last they heard the wounded man faintly calling. He spoke to Helen hoarsely.
There was no malice, only fear, in his tones:

TAXPAYERS TOLD
SUPERVISOR HAS MADE STATEMENT

A petition signed by 300 taxpayers of the Seventh magisterial district asking that the fiscal court order E.
B. Johnson, the county road supervisor, to prepare a statement to be published in the newspapers, of the money expended for road work during the past five years, has been filed with County Attorney Alben Barkley to be presented to the fiscal court. Although the petition was not formally before the court today, the county attorney being absent from the city, it was informally discussed by the seven members of the court present and the fact was brought out that exhaustive reports had been made and filed by the road supervisor and could be read by any citizen who cared to investigate.

After discussing the petition and several other matters the court got down to routine matters and the following claims were allowed:

IN OLD PADUKE, K-Y.

(With apologies to Will Carlton.)
Some folks will say that they prefer in "furrin'" parts to dwell But I know of a certain place that suits me pretty well.
They brag about the balmy climes of Italy and Spain,
And breathe a sigh of deep relief when they get home again.
Some folks call California, the "greatest place on earth," Then hustle back to old Kentuck for all they are worth.
All them as wants, can settle down in Rome or Gay Paree,
But little old Paduke, K-y, is good enough for me.

You may call me old-fashioned, but I've been around a-bit
In this enlightened country and I've seen most all of it.
I've seen the sights in old New York and stood on Bunker Hill, And stayed in classic Boston town until I had a chill.
I've met most all the bunco men who in Chicago dwell,
I've been held up in Cairo and St.
Louis, as well.
I lingered for a week or two at Tombstone, way out west,
But I must say in confidence, I like Paducah best.

I've loafed around the capitol in Washington, D. C., And slept in Philadelphia and dined in Kankakee.
I spent a week in Kokomo and one in Smithland, too,
But there ain't much in either place except the river view.
I've seen the swamps in Florida, the waves at Sandy Hook, The millionaires of Pittsburgh and the good wives that they shook.
I've been to Cincinnati and while there I crossed the Rhine And after all I've seen, I guess it's Old Paduke for mine.

I never had a hankerin' to stop and settle down
Till one day, quite by accident, I blew into this town,
Let's see, I guess that must have been some several years ago
That I unpacked my carpet bag to stay a day or so.
But I kept right on stayin' here and here I am today,
As happy as a big sunflower. And healthy? I should say.
I want to live among my friends in old Paduke, K-y, And if I get my fondest wish, I'll never say good-bye.

2-MINUTE SKETCHES

Stonewall Jackson.

By ROBERTUS LOVE.

Head, heart and soul were in the fight.

THOUGH his baptismal name was Thomas Jonathan Jackson, the great southern general will be known in history always as Stonewall Jackson. In fact, this sobriquet bestowed upon the Confederate warrior through General Bee's remark at the first battle of Bull Run, or Manassas. "There stands Jackson like a stone wall," became so intimately identified with Jackson's name even before his untimely death in the very midst of the war that it came to be printed without quotation marks.

Stonewall Jackson always stood like a stone wall for whatever he believed to be right. A native Virginian, he believed that Virginia and the south had the highest warrant for seceding from the Union. Jackson believed that secession under the circumstances attending the struggle was ordained of God. To him the Confederate cause was always a sacred cause, and to him the war was a religious war. He was a modern crusader. Not only his head and heart, but his soul was in the fight.

Jackson opened every battle with prayer. Daily and nightly he prayed in his tent, and every man under his command, no matter how irreligious, felt the spiritual uplift of his prayers.
But Jackson fought as well as he prayed. He was a military genius.
Historians north and south, American and European, have characterized him as one of the very ablest generals on either side of the conflict. But for his death when the war had still two years to run Stonewall Jackson might have come out of the struggle as the foremost military genius of the civil war.
General Lee's estimate of his chief lieutenant in the earlier Virginia campaign expresses his own measure of the man. When Lee learned that Jackson's left arm had been amputated after being wounded by his own men through that pathetic error at Chancellorsville, a wound which resulted fatally a little later, the commander exclaimed:
"General Jackson has lost his left arm; I have lost my right arm!"

D. A. R. Reception.

Paducah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution will receive this afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. A. Gardner on Fountain avenue. It is a Colonial Tea, and an elaborate social function.

Popular Socially in Paducah.

The Sunday Washington letter in the Louisville Courier-Journal says of a talented Louisville woman who frequently visits the family of Capt. John E. Williamson, in Paducah:

"A distinguished Louisville in Washington this week has been Mrs. M. B. Tucker, a prominent educator, here to attend the national convention of public school superintendents, together with Prof. E. H. Marks, superintendent Louisville public schools. Mrs. H. Bartholomew, principal of the Louisville high school, principal manual training school. Professor Bartholomew was made a member of the nominating committee of the Great Educational association. Mrs. Tucker, who enjoyed the distinction of having conducted a 'model school' for a week at the Jamestown exposition, was the recipient of much social attention during her visit here. She was cordially welcomed by Justice Harlan. All the delegates were received by President Roosevelt."

Stunning Costumes.

Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Longworth both wore especially stunning costumes at the wind up levee, never seen before. Mrs. Roosevelt, with her husband, led the procession down the marble steps to the Blue Room from the private library above stairs, where the receiving gang always assembles, in a Pompadour silk with its background of royal blue. Mrs. Longworth, who is never one of the pompous pageant—she just floats in and out of the Blue Room impromptu like—looked her supreme best. Her costume was an artistic triumph that might have been designed by a Burne-Jones or a Rossetti, so pre-Raphaelite was it in tint and hang. It was of peacock blue gauze, clinging closely over a slip of emerald green silk. A deep border of most realistic embroidered peacock feathers finished the edge of the skirt and composed the sleeve drapery. Contrary to her usual regimen of an unadorned coiffure, Mrs. Longworth wore a diamond tiara upon her hair, dressed as always, low, at the nape of her neck. Her long, pendant diamond earrings swung from her ears. A diamond dog collar clasped her throat. She was startlingly effective, and, as always, decidedly the belle of the ball.—Washington (D. C.) Letter.

The guests all wore comic costumes which added greatly to the gaiety of the evening. Miss Theresa Kirchoff and Mr. John Moller carried off the honors for the most unique costumes. In the card game the head prizes were won by Miss Lydon and Mr. Gus Legeay. Mr. John Moller and Miss Lydon took the lone hand prizes. The consolation prizes went to Miss Audrey Taylor and Mr. John Moller. A delicious luncheon was served. It was the final meeting of the club until after Easter.

Miss Hills Honored at German in Jackson.

Pretty Musical Evening.

A charming musical was given last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gilbert, 2003 Jefferson boulevard. It was under the auspices of the Grace Church Guild and was most attractive in all of its details. The program was a delightful one. Those taking part were: Miss Anne Bradshaw, Miss Lila Reed, Miss Mamie O'Brien, Messrs. Richard Scott, Will Gilbert and Ernest Thompson.

In the dining-room, which was effectively decorated with ferns and flowers, punch was served.

A free-will offering was taken for the benefit of the Guild's carpet fund and the collection of this was a novel and pretty feature of the entertainment. In the front hall was hung an iron pot—an heirloom from Revolutionary days—with the sign above it, "Keep the pot boiling." Miss Elizabeth Kirkland and Miss Lucia Powell dressed as Salvation Army lasses, presided here and were charming incentives to a willing contribution.

A Woman's Year.

The following political privileges were extended to women during 1907: Norway granted them full parliamentary suffrage. Sweden made them eligible to municipal offices.

Denmark gave them the right to vote for members of the board of public charities and made them eligible to serve on such board.

Great Britain made them eligible as town councilors, mayors and aldermen, and at the fall elections three women were elected municipal councilors in England and one in Scotland.

The cabinet ministers of the Netherlands drafted a revised constitution which was approved by the council of state and has been placed before parliament; it provides for the ballot for women and makes them eligible to office.

The young liberal party of Bavaria voted unanimously to invite women to join all its branch societies as soon as the prospective change takes place. In the law of the empire, which forbids women to be members of any political association.

Women voted for the first time in state elections in Queensland, Australia; and for the first time in history a majority of any disfranchised class petitioned for suffrage when the majority of adult women of Iceland asked for the parliamentary vote.

Parliamentary suffrage was granted to Russian women on the same terms as to men except that the former must vote by proxy.

In the United States, while there have been no such important specific gains, the civil status of women has been elevated in various states, women have been elected to boards of education in large numbers, and given other opportunities for greater service in our municipalities. The constitution of the new state of Oklahoma provided for school suffrage for women and made women eligible to one state office. The woman suffrage movement has been officially endorsed by the American Federation of Labor, the National Grange, the National Letter Carriers' association and by a score of other important bodies.

RETIRED BUSINESS MAN FAVORS NEW THEORY

One of the most interesting statements made recently concerning the much discussed Cooper theory, that has spread over the country during the past year, is made by E. H. Lambert, a retired business man, whose home is at 115 Francis street, Everett, Mass.

Mr. Lambert has this to say in connection with Cooper and his medicine: "Some time ago I read an article about this man Cooper, in which he claimed that stomach trouble was directly responsible for most ill health. He went on to say that, although his medicine did nothing but get the stomach in sound condition, it would, in many cases, remove kidney and liver trouble and various other ailments. He argued from this that the stomach was the main cause of sickness, and stated that the success he has had with his medicine was due entirely to this fact.

"I am now fully convinced that this theory is correct, and believe Cooper has a really remarkable medicine, judging from my own experience.

"I have been a sick man for five years. Three years ago I was told by a physician that I had Bright's disease of the kidneys. I have treated constantly for this trouble since, without results. After reading the article I have mentioned, I purchased some of this man Cooper's medicine. I have been astounded by what it has done for me. I was relieved to some extent within 24 hours. Today my health is better than for five years, and so far as I can tell, my kidney trouble has disappeared.

"My wife, who had stomach trouble for some time, tried the preparation after noting its action in my case, and her improvement is fully as marked as mine. She now eats heartily three times a day without any distress whatsoever. Her nervousness has also left her. I certainly believe this man's success is fully justified, as he undoubtedly has a wonderful medicine."

We will gladly describe the remarkable record made by the Cooper medicines to all who wish to know of them.—W. B. McPherson.

COUNCIL BOARD MET LAST NIGHT

Routine Business Consumes Time of Session.

Action of Aldermen Concurred in by Councilmen and Reports Received for February.

BONDS OF SALOONS ALLOWED.

At the meeting of the board of councilmen last night, President Lindsey was absent and Councilman Lackey was elected as president pro tem. Flournoy and Kreutzer were also absent.

Mayor Smith reported that the city owns about 30 acres of land north of the city, which was not being used and that he could rent the property for $5 per acre for farming purposes for the season of 1908. The council gave the mayor the power to act.

City Engineer Washington reported that he had finished a map of the north side, the lots of which were not numbered. He asked that a committee be appointed to act with him in numbering these lots. The president appointed Councilmen Duvall, Young and Foreman on the committee.

Mrs. Emma Plumb, whose property on North Sixth street, was assessed $7.40 too much, will be refunded her money.

A communication from the board of supervisors and the health officer's report were received and filed.

A communication signed by about 30 retail grocers, asking that an ordinance be brought in, prohibiting the sale of staple or fancy groceries on Sunday, and that a fine of not less than $25 or more than $100 be assessed for every offense, was tabled.

ECZEMA PATIENT LOST HOPE.

But Ordinary Oil of Wintergreen Quickly Cured This Woman.

After treating for Eczema with six different doctors, Mrs. J. A. Wheeler, of Wellington, O., was completely cured by pure vegetable oil of wintergreen. This oil alone could not cure, but she used this oil compounded with glycerine, etc., in D. D. D. Prescription.

"I feel it my duty to say what a wonderful cure D. D. D. has been for me," writes Mrs. Wheeler. "I was cured a year ago last fall, but did not dare write because I was not sure the cure would be permanent. I had doctored with six doctors and they all said it was seldom, if ever, a case like mine was cured. I think I used only four bottles of D. D. D. and I am permanently cured. If I ever needed D. D. D. again I would be willing to pay $5 a bottle."

This remedy and also D. D. D. Soap are sold by us and recommended because we know their merits. We certainly would not recommend them to our neighbors and patrons if we did not positively know of the wonderful results that D. D. D. brings in all kinds of eczematous diseases. R. W. Walker & Co. posed for every offense, was tabled, as there is now an ordinance in effect. Coffee house licenses were granted Herbert Johnson to open a saloon at 121 Kentucky avenue, and James Lofton at 1533 Broad street.

The report of Chief of Police James Collins and Fire Chief J. J. Wood were received and filed for the month of February.

The action of the upper board was concurred in in the following matters: That the ordinance committee bring in an ordinance prohibiting skating on the sidewalks; that factories, located in Paducah pay their license and tax for five years and that their money be refunded at that time with 4 per cent interest; that No. 4 fire station be connected with the sanitary sewer; that the fire alarm system have some new wire put in at an expense not exceeding $125.

The treasurer's report for February was received and filed and bills for the month of February to the amount of $12,796.98 were allowed and ordered paid.

Last year the residents of Plunkett Hill asked that the city cut a street through and grade it and they would give the city the land to do so, but as the deed of the property has not been given the city the improvement has not been made. The property owners of that section made a request to the council last night for the city to go on with the work, action was deferred until the deed is given the city.

A deed was granted Mr. James S. Meigan for lot 17, block 43, in Oak Grove.

The transfer of lot 9, block 41, from J. L. Troutman to Mrs. Annie Miller was ratified.

Property owners on Twenty-fifth street between Broadway and Adams street, asked that it be graded. The matter was referred to the street committee.

The ordinance committee was asked to bring in an ordinance changing the license of the cigar makers and dealers from $35 per year to $10 per year.

Councilman Young read a communication from the mayor as to placing Paducah in class 2, fire rating. The communication was received and filed.

City Solicitor Campbell reported that his investigation as to the reliability of the Illinois Surety company, of Chicago, revealed nothing derogatory to the concern, which is on the bond of a number of saloons in this city.

Councilman Van Meter asked that the ordinance committee meet on every Tuesday in the month.

MONARCHS IN EXILE.

Rulers Who Have Been Deprived Thrones Spend Time Abroad.

England has always been the haven of political refugees and royal pretenders, and as a rule they have shown their appreciation of the country's hospitality by refraining from criticizing their hosts or saying anything that might jeopardize their position as mere tolerated outsiders.

But the Duke of Orleans overstepped the bounds some years ago and made a violent and uncalled-for attack on the late Queen Victoria. In the end, writes the London correspondent of Town and Country, he was obliged to leave the country and did not return until he made a most abject apology.

This little incident has not endeared him to the British people, who look upon him as a person of no account. But since his return he has behaved very well and has lived the life of an ordinary country gentleman, amusing himself intermittently with the issue of a pronouncement to "his people" or a little North Pole trip.

His father, when in exile here, was more popular. So was Louis Philippe after the coup d'etat. So was Louis Napoleon, who lived in London in many social phases, once as a waiter and again as a highly appreciated member of the best society of the West End.

He never forgot the kindnesses that were extended to him during his stay here, and when he became emperor of the French his first wish was to come over with Empress Eugenie and look up his old friends, which he found it difficult to do in the manner he liked, for when he came here to Windsor he was fairly tied up with court etiquette, from which it was impossible to escape.

I have recently seen a letter from Louis Napoleon to an old London friend from Windsor, in which he said: "I would much sooner run down to you and have an evening at —, where we could smoke and chat and talk over the times when you and I were sworn in as special policemen." Napoleon III. came into his empire.

Stomach Muscles in Old Age

People should be more and more careful, as age advances, to see that their bowels move regularly. In this way they can keep themselves in good health and prolong life. The bowels are not as active in middle-life and old age as they are in youth, and with the majority there is a tendency to constipation of a chronic and obstinate nature.

To ward off the possibility of serious diseases use Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great herb laxative compound. It is especially suited to the use of elderly people because it is prompt but gentle in action, and does its work without griping or weakening, as is the case with salts, purgative waters and cathartic tablets. These should not be used by children, women, old folks or weak people because they are too violent in action and generally grip. Furthermore, the results are temporary as reaction sets in and the bowels are bound up more than ever.

A remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is very gentle in action and yet thoroughly effective, and as it contains tonic properties, it strengthens the system instead of weakening it. The results are permanent because gradual, and many can in a short time do away with the use of laxatives. It will cure the most chronic constipation, dyspepsia, liver trouble, biliousness, flatulency, sour stomach, weak stomach, bloating, nervousness and such other stomach, liver and bowel troubles.

To prove how effective it is in serious cases the experience of Dr. Armstrong, of Decatur, Ill., can be cited. He suffered from a gun-shot wound during the Civil War which caused a partial paralysis of the bowels and he had ever since to use a laxative. He says he never found anything so effective, or which worked so near to nature, as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Try it and you will say the same. The price is 50 cents per bottle or $1 a bottle at any druggist.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Gentlest yet most effective laxative for children, women and old folks. A guaranteed permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPsin." MANY SUBJECTS IN THE HOUSE Committee Authorized to Investigate Peonage.

Railroad Bond Clause of Aldrich Bill Attacked by Senator Smith—Bill for Increased Mileage

FOR MEMBERS IS PRESENTED.

Washington, March 3.—Senator William Alden Smith, of Michigan, spoke against the railroad bond feature of the Aldrich currency bill pending before the senate.

Most of the day was devoted to passing of bills on the calendar which are not of general importance.

A variety of subjects were considered by the house. A resolution was passed authorizing the immigration committee to investigate the charges of peonage in certain states. In a debate on that question Clark, of Florida, denounced Assistant Attorney General Russell, in connection with certain prosecutions in Florida and referred sarcastically to Attorney General Bonaparte. There followed a lively discussion over a bill to deport, after serving of their sentence, all aliens convicted of felony. The measure was defeated.

Four hundred pension bills and a few private bills were passed and the balance of the time was consumed in considering the postoffice appropriation bill, which it is expected will be discussed for several days.

An important bit of legislation was offered in the house by Hepburn, of Iowa, through a bill imposing a tax of fifty cents per hundred shares on stock or agreements to sell.

Representative Hamilton, of Michigan, introduced a bill to protect national banks from libel and slander. The bill provides, however, that nothing written or printed shall be deemed libel unless it is published.

Improvement and care of the Hermitage, home of Andrew Jackson, in Tennessee, is provided for in a bill which was passed by the senate. For this purpose $25,000 is appropriated to be paid to the Ladies Hermitage association.

Representative Crumpacker, of Indiana, introduced a bill providing that members of congress shall receive a mileage of eight cents a mile to be estimated by the nearest route usually traveled to and from each session of congress.

The senate passed a bill authorizing entry under the homestead laws of 32½ acres of land instead of 160 as at present when land is arid and incapable of irrigation.

Consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill was begun in the house. As presented the bill carries $220,765,332, which is $9,675,224 less than estimated. Overstreet, of Indiana, explained the provisions of the measure, the main feature of which has already been published. An understanding was reached whereby the general debate is to continue indefinitely.

Mr. Charles Yard and Mr. Thomas Rogers, two popular employees of the Illinois Central shops, have embarked in the poultry business. Foreman George Bennett and Car Repairers Will Hutchens and R. B. Barnes left this morning for Cedar Bluff to look after some railroad interests.

Locomotives Turn Themselves. Gasoline engines and electric motors have taken the place of manual labor in the operations of changing the direction of a locomotive on a turntable. These mechanical powers have reduced the cost of operating a turntable by hand from about $15 per twenty-four hours to $5 for turning 400 locomotives.

Now a bright genius has thought of a method, the expense of which is so small that it can hardly be estimated. It consists of a compressed air motor placed beneath the turntable and operated from air furnished by the air brake pump on the locomotive being turned. Connection is made between the engine and the motor with a piping and hose. An air pressure of 50 pounds will turn the locomotive, and, as the turning is all done in two minutes, the amount of steam used to work the pump is too small to reckon. —Popular Magazine.

IN CACHE CREEK

YOUNG MAN OF MOUND CITY, ILL., IS DROWNED.

Lost His Footing and Tumbled Off Big Four Railroad Bridge Sunday Night.

Mound City, March 3.—Edward Horn, a young man residing in Mound City, was drowned in Cache Creek while walking from Cairo to Mound City.

Horn and a friend named Charles Tapley spent Sunday in Cairo and late in the evening started to walk home. While crossing the Big Four railroad bridge, it is believed that Horn lost his footing and fell between the ties of the bridge into the stream beneath.

Tapley was unable to help his friend or to find the body which evidently sank at once. He hurried to Mound City and notified the authorities. Men dragged Cache creek and found the body, which was taken to Mound City and an inquest was held by the coroner, resulting in a verdict of accidental drowning.

The deceased was 25 years of age and was unmarried. He has a brother employed by the Illinois Central at Mounds, who resides in Mound City. Horn was employed at the Wisconsin Chair factory.

Tapley, who was with Horn when the sad accident occurred, is an employee of the Williamson-Kunz Lumber company of Mound City.

REFRESHMENTS WERE TOO JOYFUL

That is What Ailed Guests of Hallie Dodd Last Night.

Annie Dickerson's Beau Chased Her Gallants Into Arms of the Police.

HERBERT JONES BOISTEROUS.

Trouble was in store for most of the guests that attended an entertainment given last night by Hallie Dodd, colored, on Husbanda street. This morning about 3 o'clock Patrolmen Clark and Bryant heard loud talking and cursing on the streets. At once the patrolmen started on the run and after a chase of three blocks, Annie Dickerson, Sherwood Gailer and Virgil Smothers were captured and locked up on a charge of disorderly conduct. Arthur Blakely escaped the patrolmen. The defendants allege that Blakely was chasing them with a razor.

In court all of the defendants had forgotten the name of their host, and the story brought out was that Arthur Blakely was Annie's beau, and he became so drunk that Annie asked Virgil and Sherwood to accompany her home. Arthur got mad, they said, and chased them. For their disorderly conduct Judge Cross assessed a fine of $5 and no costs against each.

Happy Refreshments.

Another unfortunate guest at the party was Herbert Jones, who became so happy over the refreshments that were served, he had to be carried home in a carriage. Jones lived in an alley near Sixth street and Kentucky avenue, and when Ernest Boyd, colored, the hackman, took him out, it is alleged that Jones ran his fist through the glass door and shoved a big pistol in Boyd's face, and refused to pay his fare.

Detectives Moore and Baker arrested him at 4 o'clock this morning, with his arm still bleeding, although Jones swore he cut his arm in the afternoon. Jones said he "ruzz drinking a little," but the officers say he was too drunk to walk. Judge Cross admonished Jones not to swear a falsehood, but his story on the stand differed from that of the officers. For flourishing a

UNDERWRITERS PROPOSE PLAN

To Put Paducah in Better Risk Class Than Ever.

Water Company Makes Improvement Greater Than Asked By Kentucky Board.

ARE RERATING THE CITY NOW

Whenever Paducah makes improvements in her water works system and in the fire department, the underwriters will give the city a rerating, and possibly of a reduction in fire rates. In a letter received from E. R. Townsend, engineer of the national underwriters, Paducah is rated in the third grade, and improvements are outlined for the entering of the 2 1/2 and 2 grade. As estimated it would cost $31,000 to make the improvements necessary to enter the 2 1/2 grade, and about $45,000 for entrance to the 2 grade, and maintaining the new fire station a year. Since Paducah receives water from a private corporation it would mean practically a new contract, as the city cannot order improvements at a private plant.

Mr. Muscoe Burnett this morning said that the recommendations of the underwriters were forestalled several months ago and that new machinery will arrive in a few days. The new machinery will exceed the demands of the underwriters by 33 1/3 per cent. By an special arrangement of the machinery the company has four pumps to use in case of emergency.

Local insurance agents knew little of the grades, and the raters who are working now, said it will be a difficult task to say what reduction, if any, will be made. The new rating would be entirely different from that made under the old rating. However, if the improvements are made a new rating of the city will be made.

The recommendations of Mr. Townsend are:

Following our inspection of the water works, fire department and conflagration hazards of the above town, we have concluded that the town will class as one of the third grade. The improvements which are in order to transfer this grade to that 2 1/2 grade are as follows:

Water Works.

1. Install a low duty pump having a capacity of not less than 4,000, 000 gallons per diem.
2. Install a high duty pump having a capacity of not less than 5,000, 000 gallons per diem.
3. Install sufficient additional boiler capacity, or equivalent power for the above service.
4. Provide high duty pumps with relief valves.

Fire Department.

1. Provide new headquarters for fire department.
2. Provide two additional full paid men for hook and ladder company at Station No. 1.
3. Provide an additional full paid man for each company.

"GOOD GROWING WEATHER."

When the New Scalp Antiseptic Is Used.

A good head of hair is as much a "crown of glory" for man as it is for woman, notwithstanding all the poetry on the subject applied to the female sex exclusively. In the season when flies bite, the bad-headed man can sympathize with the Egyptians who were so sorely plagued on account of the children of Israel. Why not try Newbro's Herpicide? Others have been benefited and are loud in its praise. It cleanses the scalp, kills the germ at the root of the hair and keeping the scalp sweet, pure and wholesome, the hair is bound to grow as nature intended, regardless of the temperature. Try it and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Two sizes, 50c and $1. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. W. B. McPherson, Special Agent.

A HOME REMEDY THAT REDUCES FAT.

Would you like to have a nice firm figure, but escape the tiresome, bone-breaking exercise or the soul-sickening diet of the old-time plan of reducing excess flesh?

Then go to the druggist and ask for this inexpensive mixture: 1/2 ounce Marmola, 1/2 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and 3 1/2 ounces Syrup Simplex. Take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime, and in a few weeks you can be as fit physically as a fawn. Mix these ingredients at home if you wish, but see that you get the Marmola in a sealed package. When fresh it acts quicker.

4. Overhaul water end of steamer.

5. Install at least 12 additional fire alarm street boxes.

6. Provide a recording water pressure gauge at headquarters.

Water Works.

In order to transfer the classification from 2 1/2 grade to that of second grade, it will be necessary to increase the low duty pumping capacity at least 2,000,000 gallons over that as noted under 2 1/2 grade, and the high duty pumping capacity to at least 5,000,000 over that as noted under 2 1/2 grade, with additional boiler capacity, or equivalent power for same, and in addition, to fulfill our requirements for the purpose of reinforcing the distributing system, which require ments will be submitted upon request.

Fire Department.

In addition to suggestions as outlined under 2 1/2 grade it will be necessary to fulfill the following suggestions:

1. Provide a new department house in the vicinity of Seventh and Adams streets to be equipped with one second class steamer, hose wagon, with at least 1,000 feet of hose and manned with eight full paid men.
2. Provide an additional full paid man for each company.
3. Install eight fire alarm street boxes.
4. Adopt approved building and electrical ordinances with provisions for enforcing same.

If we can be of further service to you in this matter, kindly advise.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) E. R. TOWNSEND, Engineer.

Peculiar Animal Which Made Odd Tracks and Sounds.

Clarksville, Tenn., March 3.—Citizens of the Oakwood neighborhood are greatly worked up over the appearance of a peculiar animal which has been seen in that section within the past few days. It was first noticed by two negroes between Oakwood and Blooming Grove creek, and from their description it is evidently an animal that is not indigenous to this country. It made a peculiar guttural sound and the parties were so badly frightened that they were unable to describe it. It is said to have been about the size of a yearling calf and with gray and white spots; that one horn grew in the middle of the head, about one foot long. Also, that it had something that looked like two tails, one covered with long white hair and the other one had no hair on it. The track made by it showed two cloven feet and two similar to a mule track. This they saw later, as they did not take time to examine the tracks when they first saw the animal.

The most frightful part of the beast is said to have been its long teeth, which were quite visible whenever it roared. As soon as the negroes could get to a house they gave the alarm and a party went in search of the animal, but the only thing visible was its tracks. What the beast is is merely conjecture, as nothing of the kind has been seen thereabouts before.

Bishop W. W. Duncan.
Spartanburg, S. C., March 3.—Bishop W. W. Duncan, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, died at his residence here yesterday. Bishop Duncan had been in bad health for months and his death will be no surprise to the great body of Methodists.

Pittsburg Clubs Under the Lid.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 3.—George W. Guthrie, the reform mayor, has put all of the Pittsburg millionaires under a curfew law and hereafter all clubs must be closed promptly at midnight.

This order was first issued a week ago, and little attention was paid to it, but yesterday the mayor, to show he was in earnest, ordered the police to raid all violating institutions, and the clubs took the hint, shutting promptly at 12 o'clock.

At the Duquesne club, the resort of the richest of the Pittsburg rich, the doors were closed at the limit time, and no person, except the members having rooms in the club, were admitted after that hour. The sideboard was declared closed at the same time, and the members could not secure a drink for love or money.

Members Chased Into Streets.
At the University club even more stringent measures were adopted. When 12 o'clock came, not only were the members refused admittance but those who were in the club were chased out. At the Pittsburg club, the American club, the Union club, and the other social organizations no members were admitted, and officers declare that they will obey the order of the mayor.

Loud complaints were emitted by the millionaires when they were unable to secure drinks after the bars of the city and clubs were closed at midnight, and there is every indication that the matter will be carried into the courts. The grieving ones claim the city has no jurisdiction in the matter, as the clubs operate under state charters. That they are not sure of their ground, however, is evident from the fact that the order is being so generally obeyed.

Result of Women's Pleas.
Superintendent of Police Thomas McQuade, in discussing the matter, said: "The better class of men are in hearty sympathy with the movement. We have received many letters from them approving of our action and congratulating us on the stand we took."

"The club nuisance has become a serious one in Pittsburg, and the mayor and police have been daily in receipt of scores of letters from wives and mothers complaining that their husbands and sons spent all their time at the clubs. We believe that by closing them at midnight it will give many a man an opportunity to visit his home occasionally."

DOROTHY REVELL WEDS.

Mysterious Actress Bride of British Army Man.

New York, March 3.—So suddenly and quietly were Miss Dorothy Revell, a well known young American actress, and Captain Wyndham-Walker, of the British army, married on Saturday, that it was not until today that friends of the young woman learned the fact.

The ceremony was performed in the apartments of the bride in the Hotel Woodward. Not even the management of the hotel knew that there was a wedding ceremony in progress and only learned of it when the bride and groom had left for Boston.

Captain Wyndham-Walker is a wealthy young Englishman. He is a grand nephew of the countess of Beaconsfield and connected with many other well known families of Great Britain.

It has been said that Dorothy Revell concealed the identity of a New York society woman who tired of aimless social parties, had abandoned them for the stage. Among all the persons who knew her on the stage however, none could be found who ever knew her as other than Dorothy Revell. Miss Revell speaks several languages, is an accomplished horsewoman and has driven her own touring car for several years.

Miners Quit Work April 1.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 3.—A strike by all bituminous coal miners in western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, April 1 next, is accepted by coal operators and miners alike. The failure of the operators of the districts named to come to an understanding with the miners at Indianapolis has brought a crisis. The operators do not want the mines operated until the prices are steadied. The coal miners are more willing to see the mines idle than accept a reduction in the mining rate. The miners, who are members of the United Mine Workers of America, will cease work April 1.

The strike may also affect operations in West Virginia, Kentucky, Iowa and Michigan.

YOUNG MEN

Why Pay High Rates, when the Old Mutual Benefit will Give You

An Endowment Policy

At Other Companies' Life Rates?

25 YEARS

The average company would charge you, at age 25, $21.25 for an ordinary LIFE policy.

We charge only $21.09 for a Fifty Year Endowment, payable at age 75. But, if you use your dividends (which actual experience has shown to be the largest of any company in existence) to reduce the policy term, you can get your money between the ages of 55 and 60.

There are letters at my office, from maturing policy holders, showing just such results. Feel free to call upon me for information and explanations regarding this policy. You may be sure that I shall not worry you with importunities. Looking after the interests of this magnificently successful old Company leaves me no time to bore people. I leave that to the fellow who hasn't so much business to claim his time.
